MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Kasia HAKSEVER

On October 5, 1961, Mr. Haksever advised that he had received a letter from the Soviet Embassy in Bonn. The letter indicated that Mr. Haksever's former wife in Tashkent had requested the assistance of the Red Cross in locating him. The Soviet representative who signed the letter indicated that the Embassy was prepared to do everything it could to assist Haksever to return to the Soviet Union if he wanted to.

After discussing this matter with Mr. Haksever and Trude Gunther, it was our mutual opinion that Mr. Haksever should not reply to the letter from the Soviet Embassy at all and should not encourage any further correspondence with them or with his former wife.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Aksam JOSEFOGLU

On September 8, 1961, Josefoglu advised me that he had received a letter from his son, Marx Nigmatullin (age 26, employed as a mechanic), who resides in the Soviet Union. The letter, which was written on August 15, 1961, indicated that Marx hoped to be a member of a tourist group which might be coming to Vienna on or about September 16, 1961. Marx requested his father to provide information regarding a possible meeting with him in Vienna at that time.

I discussed this matter at MOG, both with regard to ascertaining whether or not a Soviet tourist group would be coming to Vienna about that time and with regard to the possibility of obtaining an emergency communications point for Josefoglu. No information was available regarding tourist groups coming to Vienna, and it was the opinion of those with whom I checked that it would be very unlikely that anything untoward would happen to Josefoglu.

I discussed this matter on two or three subsequent occasions with Josefoglu and he went to Vienna on September 16/17. No Soviet tourist groups arrived and he was not able to obtain any information regarding the anticipated arrival of subsequent groups. He was accompanied on this trip by Misbach Miftachoglu.

While in Vienna, Josefoglu made contact with our Vienna correspondent, Kurt Neubauer, and arrangements were made to have Mr. Neubauer's office advise Josefoglu regarding the arrival of Soviet tourist groups in the next few weeks.
